- Sew Easy 60 degrees Triangle Ruler
- 4 x 25 cm of Christmas fabrics
- 1 x 1 meter Christmas fabrics for border, backing and tree
- 1 x 50 cm Christmas fabrics for binding and tree
- 1 fat quarter for the trunk
- 75 cm white tone on tone for Background
- 1.3 meter Pellon
- Gutermann Thread
- Sewing Machine
- Pins
- Safety pins for basting
- Clips for binding
- Sewing Machine
- Rotary Cutter
- Quilting Ruler
- Iron

CUTTING:

- For the trees, cut 1 x 2" strips from each fabric
- For the trunk, cut four pieces of 3 ½" x 2 ½" from the fat quarter
- From white tone on tone cut eight pieces of 3 ½" x 5 ½"
- Cut a 9 ¾" strip of white fabric. Then, using the ruler, cut four large triangles from the strip. Finally, cut large triangles in half to create 8 thinner triangles.
- Cut 8 pieces of 1 ¼" x 9 ½" from the white tone on tone
- Cut 3 strips of 2 ½" for border

INSTRUCTIONS

Step 1 - Arrange the strips of fabrics for the tree in a pleasing order and stitch them all together.

Step 2 - After sewing together cut out 4 trees using the 60-degree ruler.

Step 3 - Sew the half-triangles onto either side of the 60-degree triangle.

Step 4 - Sew the 1 ¼" strips either side of the tree.

Step 5 - Sew the background 3 ½" x 5 ½" either side of the trunk.

Step 6 - Sew the tree and the trunk together to form the block.

Step 7 - Sew the trees together with two on either side facing towards the center.

SPOTLIGHT
