INSTRUCTIONS

Word Canvas

Step 1 - Make your letter stencils by printing the text onto paper and cutting it out. We chose the phrase 'thank you, next' in a 70s retro inspired font. You could also free-hand draw the letters using pencil.

Step 2 - Using double sided tape stick your letters down onto your canvas. Use a ruler to check your letters are straight and trace the stencil. Remove the stencil then draw the drop shadows behind the main words, we did three layers of shadows.

Step 3 - You are now ready to paint. We started painting the pink background and then started on the words. You will need to let each layer of the drop shadows dry before starting another layer.

Step 4 - Once finished, let the painting completely dry. Go back and touch up any mistakes with paint to get crisp lines.

Pattern Canvas

Step 1 - Make your psychedelic pattern by free-hand drawing the swirls using pencil.

Step 2. You are now ready to paint. We painted the swirls first, followed by filling in the background to get clean lines. Let paint dry in between before starting on the background to prevent paint from mixing.

Step 3. When you have finished painting and paint is completely dry. Go back and touch up any mistakes with paint to get crisp lines.

Tips To make the acrylic paint easier to work with when painting the shadows, thin the paint by dipping the paint brush into water and mixing it with the acrylic paint on the palette.

If you are free-hand drawing using pencil, remember to have an eraser on hand to correct mistakes.
